Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the RANGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of all the ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, drawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The helpful surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can afford to accept a second opinion from a substitute for this remedy of known composition. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

STUART'S CAVALRY IN THE GETTYSBURG CAMPAIGN.

Col. John S. Mosby has received the following letters from an English officer in Canada, which explains themselves:

Department of Militia and Defence, Ottawa, June 28, 1909.

Dear Sir—I have recently read your book on "Stuart's Cavalry in the Gettysburg Campaign" and feel that I should like to let you know how much pleasure and instruction your work has given to one who has always felt a keen interest in the true account of the actions of the war of 1861-65.

Some years ago, as a British officer, I was studying for our promotion examinations for the rank of major, and our military history subject dealt almost entirely with the operations in the Shenandoah Valley—1861-62—and on the Chickahominy—1862. Our text book was Colonel Henderson's "Stonewall Jackson."

Your book throws a great deal of light upon what I, as a British student, thought obscure about Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. I am so pleased to know the real reason of the battle there, I think you have done good service in throwing light on these hitherto obscure points. You have certainly championed your old friend Stuart as a real Knight Errant, with all the enthusiasm of earnest belief and conviction. In Canada here we have always admired Stuart immensely, though probably Robt. E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson were our chief heroes of the war.

I hope you will pardon my troubling you in this way, but I admired so much the manner in which you advanced your cause, and the arguments brought forward seemed so irrefragable, that I wanted as a Canadian soldier, to let you know of the satisfaction your book has given, at least to me.

Yours truly,

CHARLES F. WINTER,

Major D. A. A. G.

COLONEL JOHN S. MOSBY,

Care of Messrs. Moffat, Yard & Company, New York, U. S. A.

Department of Militia and Defence, Ottawa, July 10th, 1909.

My dear sir, I much appreciated your letter of 1st instant, and can well understand how painful it must have been for you to speak so plainly about many of your old comrades in the war, but I agree with you that it was a duty that should be performed by somebody in fairness to the memories of both General Lee and General Stuart, and, being yourself in possession of exceptional information owing to the peculiar circumstances under which you served at the time, I feel that you were perfectly right in bringing out the points you did.

Personally I feel grateful to you, because I never really understood the Gettysburg campaign before, but your descriptions have made it very plain and simple.

With kind regards, and trusting you will live long to vindicate Stuart's memory, I am respectfully yours,

CHARLES F. WINTER,

Major, D. A. A. G.

LT. COL. JOHN S. MOSBY,

Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

BANKER KILLED.

J. E. Saylor, vice-president of the First National Bank of Crescent City, Ill., was killed Sunday night by Dr. W. E. Miller, a well-known physician of that vicinity, on returning home from a trip out of town and finding the physician at his house with his wife.

The murder, which is believed to have been premeditated, was the result of a scandal of two years' duration, during which time the physician had been paying attentions to the banker's wife.

Miller, although the father of a son and daughter, and having a wife, continued his attentions to Mrs. Saylor despite the gossip his actions aroused.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Saylor attended a ball game near Crescent City. Returning home late at night, he discovered Miller with his wife.

Mr. Saylor remonstrated with him for his attentions to Mrs. Saylor. Miller pulled an automatic revolver from his pocket and fired at the banker. The bullets took effect in both arms of the husband, one passing through the chest and a fourth pierced his heart, causing instant death. Mrs. Saylor in the meantime had fled from the house.

People in Watska and vicinity are thoroughly aroused over the crime, and mob violence is feared.

Mrs. Saylor, on the witness stand before the coroner's jury, answered all questions in an unconcerned manner. Asked why she did not help her husband when she saw him getting the worst of it, she replied, "I didn't think it was any of my business to interfere."

Roscoe Barry, colored, shot and killed Eva Douglas, wife of Joshua Douglas, at a negro picnic held at Aldie, Sunday afternoon. The trouble arose over the possession of a cup of water at a spring. Barry was arrested. At the same time, in another section of Loudoun county, near Clark's Gap, Elwood Gaskins was killed, Dick Walker mortally wounded and Frank Taylor seriously hurt as the result of a shooting affair during a colored festival.

DO YOU KNOW?

ROSEMONT

HAS

An avenue more beautiful than any suburb of Washington. With a double roadway and ten feet of parking on its entire length. Six feet more of parking adjoining fine granolithic sidewalks on both sides.

Lots with fine, high terraced fronts above the sidewalks on each side. And other lots with an elevation only 30 feet below the surface of the toe city reservoir.

These are only a few of the facts about beautiful ROSEMONT, but if you will let me show you over the property, I will tell you of its many other attractions and advantages to home builders and investors.

The lots on this beautiful avenue are rapidly being taken up, and any one of those left will be worth more than present prices in a very short time.
